Dear Mr. Smith:

It is my pleasure to inform you that you have been selected to receive the 2022 American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics Chanute Flight Test Award.

The award is presented to recognize significant lifetime achievements in the advancement of the art, science, and technology of flight test engineering.

The citation for your award reads: “For career-long achievements and contributions to the safe practices and teaching of flight testing, particularly in flight controls and flying qualities, and significant collaboration with a diverse set of aerospace stakeholders.”

You will be recognized during the 2022 AIAA AVIATION Forum, 27 June-1 July 2022 in Chicago, IL. Please visit this page: AIAA AVIATION Forum and Exposition | AIAA for information about the forum and travel. Additional details regarding your award presentation will be sent later.

If you have any questions, please contact Patricia A. Carr, Senior Manager, AIAA Honors and Awards Programs, at patriciac@aiaa.org

Congratulations on this well-deserved honor!

Sincerely,

Laura McGill
AIAA Honors and Awards Chair
